Naturally, love is much more than an outward consent or a contract, yet it is nonetheless true that choosing to give marriage a visible form in society by undertaking certain commitments shows how important it is. It manifests the seriousness of each person's identification with the other and their firm decision to leave adolescent individualism behind and to belong to one another. Marriage is a means of expressing that we have truly left the security of the home in which we grew up in order to build other strong ties and to take on a new responsibility for another person. This is much more meaningful than a mere spontaneous association for mutual gratification, which would turn marriage into a purely private affair.". Pope Francis, "Amoris Laetitia" #131

HYMN OF THE DAY

I am the Bread of Life
He who comes to me shall not hunger
He who believes in me shall not thirst
No one can come to me
Unless the father call him.
And I will raise you up(3)
On the last day.

The bread that I will give
Is my flesh for the life of the world
And if you eat of this bread
You shall live forever(2)
