CEMETERY SUNDAY - THANKS

Thanks to all who helped with the organising of the prayers in St. Mary's Cemetery last Sunday.

Sgt Brian Dineen and his colleagues in Navan Gardaí for their assistance with traffic control and general security;

The Order of Malta for their medical assistance;

Arthur Coldrick and the Coldrick family for the use of their fields for parking;

St. Mary's Stewards;

The volunteers from Meath River Rescue, Navan O'Mahony's, Simonstown GAA Club, who stewarded the parking;

Michael McGoldrick for providing the sound system;

Seamus Conlon for transport of materials;

The members of St. Mary's Choir and organist David Burke;

The altar servers who assisted;

Boyne Waste Services for toilet facilities;

Peadar Farrelly for providing the canopy;

Bobby Farrelly the cemetery caretaker.

The Parish commends the efforts of everybody to have their plots looking so well on Sunday. We encourage everybody to bring home all waste from the cemetery – dumping is offensive to the living and disrespectful to the dead.

✠Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord ✠

Michael Denning, St. Brigid's Villas;

Philomena Forde, Sussex & Navan

Louis Martin, Dublin, late of Donaghpatrick

Reborn through Water and the Holy Spirit:

Lucius Obinna & Winniefred Chiziterem Sandi;

Jake Joseph Casserly; Charlie John Kelly; Holly

Rose Halpin; Lukas Mituzas

Rosary St. Mary's Church every evening 6.30pm.

HYMN OF THE DAY

Bind us together, Lord,
bind us together with cords
that cannot be broken.

Bind us together, Lord; bind us together, Lord;
bind us together in love.

There is only one God, there is only one King.
There is only one Body, that is why we sing:

We are the fam'ly of God,
we are his promise divine,
we are his chosen desire,
we are the glorious new wine.

In order to avoid all misunderstanding, I would point out that in no way must the Church desist from proposing the full ideal of marriage, God's plan in all its grandeur: "Young people who are baptised should be encouraged to understand that the sacrament of marriage can enrich their prospects of love and that they can be sustained by the grace of Christ in the sacrament and by the possibility of participating fully in the life of the Church". A lukewarm attitude, any kind of relativism, or an undue reticence in proposing that ideal, would be a lack of fidelity to the Gospel and also of love on the part of the Church for young people themselves. To show understanding in the face of exceptional situations never implies dimming the light of the fuller ideal, or proposing less than what Jesus offers to the human being. Today, more important than the pastoral care of failures is the pastoral effort to strengthen marriages and thus to prevent their breakdown.. Pope Francis, "Amoris Laetitia" #307.

World Youth Day: Please keep in your prayer the young people from our Parish and Diocese who will travel to Cracow in Poland on Mon 18th July. May their experience of celebrating their faith with other young people from all around the world, and their encounter with Pope Francis, renew them in faith, hope and love.
